Where do campers check-in?

Look for the large adidas flags near the main stadium entrance

Is walk up registration available during the football camp?

Yes. If space is available, campers can sign up at the late registration table.

Tell me about the coaches

Over 40 volunteer coaches of the Johnson-Toney Football Camp will teach sound fundamentals of football. All coaches are background checked. Many of the coaches have extensive sports backgrounds as football coaches and/or campers. Some of our volunteers coach in pee wee, high school or college programs. A few current and former NFL players will be on hand to share their football knowledge with campers.

Is this a non-contact football camp?

Yes, this is a non-contact football camp. Coaches emphasize proper technique. Campers will be taught proper stance and starts, route running, catching, passing, blocking, covering, basic offensive and defensive formations and more. In addition, campers will play scrimmage games.

Should campers bring any special equipment?

Rubber cleats work best to ensure sound footing. Cross training shoes also work well on field turf. All campers are issued a t-shirt and lightweight backpack to store personal belongings. Camper and coaches apparel is donated by adidas.

What should campers wear to the football camp?

Campers are expected to wear their issued adidas t-shirt to camp every day. Please do not alter the t-shirt by writing on them, tearing sleeves, etc. Campers provide their own shorts or sweatpants, gloves, and cleats.

Is there anything campers should not bring to camp?

Yes. Please do not bring chewing gum, sunflower seeds, sports drinks or sodas into the stadium. Do not bring valuables to the camp.

Is there a picture day?

Yes. Picture day is Thursday. Campers will take a full group picture.

Is lunch provided?

Yes. A free lunch is provided all 4 days of camp. Water stations are set up on all fields and near food service areas. Meals are served near the stadium.

Will my child/children practice with other campers in their age range?

Yes. The three age ranges are:

June 27-30, 2023, Monterey Peninsula College, Monterey, CA 9-11 year olds and 12-14 year olds

July 25-28, 2023, Rabobank Stadium, Salinas, CA 15-17 year olds

Can parents, friends and family watch practice?

Yes. Spectators are welcome to watch practice from the stands or from a safe distance away on the sidelines.

Where should I park?

Free parking is available at Monterey Peninsula College in Lot C (located on the gymnasium side of the campus). Parking permits are required for all other campus lots.

Free parking is available on the scoreboard side at Rabobank Stadium. Enter from Maryal Drive.
