Where do campers check-in?

Look for the Johnson-Toney Football Camp signs as you approach the stadium main entrance

Is walk up registration available during the football camp?

Yes. If space is available, campers can sign up at the late registration table.

Tell me about the coaches

Over 40 experienced volunteer coaches of the Johnson-Toney Football Camp will teach sound fundamentals to campers. All coaches are background-checked. Many of the coaches have athletics and fitness backgrounds. Some of our volunteers coach youth, high school, or college football programs. A few current and former NFL players will be on hand to share their football expertise with campers.

Is this a non-contact football camp?

Yes, this is a non-contact football camp. Coaches emphasize proper techniques at all times. Campers will be taught proper stance and starts, route running, pass catching, passing, blocking, guarding, basic offense and defense. Campers will play also participate in scrimmage games daily.

Should campers bring any special equipment?

Rubber cleats work best to ensure sound footing. Water bottles are allowed, but not required. Cross-training shoes also work well on natural grass. All campers are issued t-shirts and a lightweight backpack for personal belongings. Camper and coaches apparel is generously donated by adidas.

What should campers wear to the football camp?

Campers are expected to wear their camp-issued adidas t-shirt every day. Please do not alter the t-shirt by writing on it, tearing sleeves, etc. Campers provide their own shorts or sweatpants, gloves, and cleats.

Is there anything campers should not bring to camp?

Yes. Please do not bring chewing gum, sunflower seeds, sports drinks, or sodas into the stadium. Do not bring valuables to the camp.

Is there a picture day?

Yes. Picture day is Thursday. Campers will take a full group picture.

Is lunch provided?

Yes. A free lunch is provided all 4 days of camp. Water stations are set up on all fields and near food service areas. Meals are served near the stadium.

Will my child/children practice with other campers in their age range?

Yes. The three age ranges are:

June 25-28, 2024, CSUMB Practice Soccer Fields                      9-11 year olds and 12-14 year olds

July 23-26, 2024, Rabobank Stadium, Salinas, CA                      15-17 year olds

Can parents, friends and family watch practice?

Yes. Spectators are welcome to watch practice from a safe distance away on the sidelines.

Where should I park?

June Camp: There is a daily fee for parking on the CSUMB campus. Parking passes may be obtained at designated locations near the parking lot.

July Camp: Free parking is available on the scoreboard side at Rabobank Stadium. Enter from Maryal Drive.
